

FOUNDAMENTAL IMPLEMENTATION SUSTAINABLE FOREST MANAGEMENT (SFM)

A. FOREST MANAGEMENT VISION

Realizing PT. Erna Djuliawati as a place to work in harmony for responsible forest managers so that they are beneficial and sustainable in production, ecological and social functions for stakeholders on an ongoing basis continuously.

B. PRINCIPLES OF SUSTAINABLE FOREST MANAGEMENT

In developing, implementing, maintaining and improving sustainable forest management, PT. ERNA DJULIAWATI is always guided by the following principles :

1. Sustainability of the production function

PT. ERNA DJULIAWATI always strives to achieve guarantees for the preservation of forest resources, forest products and business operations in a sustainable manner across the next generations.

2. Preservation of ecological functions

PT. ERNA DJULIAWATI always strives to ensure the sustainability of life buffering systems for ecosystems, flora and fauna species and communities in a management unit system and sustainably across the next generations.

3. Sustainability of social functions

PT. ERNA DJULIAWATI always strives to achieve guarantees for the sustainability of forest exploitation for the fulfillment of the lives of communities that depend on forests, both directly and indirectly impacts, in a sustainable manner across the next generations.

4. Pay Attention to stakeholders

PT. ERNA DJULIAWATI always strives in forest management to pay attention to stakeholders in equality to create a harmonious sense of belonging to the forest, so that sustainable forest management is the responsibility of all stakeholders.

5. Continual improvement

PT. ERNA DJULIAWATI in implementing sustainable forest management always improves gradually and in a planned manner according to resources in an effort to achieve the goal of sustainable forest management.

C. THE OBJECTIVES OF SUSTAINABLE FOREST MANAGEMENT

PT. ERNA DJULIAWATI in implementing responsible forest management aims to create sustainable forests by utilizing forest resources optimally, effectively, efficiently and in a balanced way in maintaining sustainability : production functions, forest benefits, ecological functions social functions across generations for stakeholders by always obeying the law and involve stakeholders.

D. SUSTAINABLE FOREST MANAGEMENT POLICY

PT ERNA DJULIAWATI's management is committed to implementing sustainable forest management through:

1. Implement relevant requirements, conventions, laws and regulations in a sustainable forest management system.
2. Fostering equal partnerships with stakeholders through community empowerment.
3. Maintain and maintain the integrity and sustainability of the resource forest.
4. Minimizing the negative environmental impact of all forest management activities.
5. Realizing the benefits of forest benefits for stakeholders in a proportional manner.
6. To develop institutions, human resources, facilities and infrastructure in a programmed, effective and efficient manner.

This policy must be a guideline for all stakeholders who are working at PT. ERNA DJULIAWATI and it would be repaired rationally.

Jakarta, 15th of May 2023

President Director

LYMAN
Timber
PT ERNA DJULIAWATI

(Ir. Iwan Djuanda)
Rev-2